

Kittelson Mission Update
2018-02-25

For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you — Romans 1:11

As many of you know, we are just finishing up Home Assignment here in America and will be heading back to Taiwan. It has been a wonderful time of fellowship with our supporting churches, fellow believers, friends and family. We long to be among these friends to share with them of the work in Taiwan and to receive encouragement for the work ahead. Thanks to all of you for the encouragement to us and the refreshment to body and soul.

We are accustomed to hearing of missionaries visiting their supporting churches, but we don't always hear of these same people visiting us in Taiwan. That is what is happening February 22nd to March 4th. Professor Mathiesen and six students will be in Taiwan to see what the mission to the people in Taiwan is all about. Ethan and Sandy Christofferson will be introducing them to the culture, beliefs, spiritual issues and the ways we minister to the Chinese in Taiwan. Michael and Delores will arrive to join with them in this time of learning on February 28th. This is a wonderful opportunity to mutually encourage one another as we carry on the mission of sharing the love of Jesus in Taiwan along with the Chinese Lutheran Brethren Church.

Pray that all attending and traveling, including us, will be healthy and alert. Pray that in our discussions about the ministry in Taiwan that the difficulties of ministry will be clearly understood so that the Lutheran Brethren Seminary students and Pastor Gaylan will return home prepared to support us in prayer and share of the work in Taiwan with others around them. Pray that we will be encouraged as we know others are concerned about what we are doing in Taiwan.

Pray also for Mike and Delores as they complete their home assignment next week and finish preparations to return to Taiwan.

Pastor Michael and Delores
