I Peter 2:9-10

"I make no claim to being a seasoned theologian. I am, however, a grateful recipient of the gifts of God's grace, principally the gift of faith to believe that the historical Jesus of Nazareth is in fact precisely who he claimed to be : God in human flesh coming as the Savior of the world.

I live with an awareness of God's abiding presence in my life as the Holy Spirit affirms within my spirit that it is in him, I live, move, and have my being. Hence, I view the world, order my life, interact with others, and continue to witness from within this Christ-centered orientation.

I am a royal priest of the most high God." Ray Seaver
